Context for Teaching
In Context for Teaching, participating teachers learn about their teaching environment and the resources and challenges it offers them and their students.

Context for Teaching

1. Class Profile (A-1)
2. Classroom Layout (A-2)
3. School & District Resources (A-3)
4. Home/School Communication (A-4)
5. Site Orientation Checklist (A-5)
6. Community Map (A-6)
7. Conversation Guide: CSDC (A-7)
8. Induction Standards Conversation Guides (A-7)

Conversation Guide: Special Populations
Collecting & Contextualizing & Extending

Conversation Guide: English Learners
Collecting & Contextualizing & Extending

Conversation Guide: Equity
Collecting & Contextualizing & Extending

Conversation Guide: Pedagogy
Collecting & Contextualizing & Extending

School Calendar	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
Standards for Student Behavior	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
Parent/Student Communication	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending

With your support provider, use the prompts above to review and discuss the artifacts. How might you use this information? Take notes regarding reflection and intended application in the space below.

Context for Teaching Flowchart

Class Profile

Classroom Layout

School & District Resources

Home/School Communication

Site Orientation Checklist

Community Map

Directions: Obtain a map of your local community and indicate local services and resources.i.e. School and District Office, Fire Department, Police Station,l library).

Conversation Guide:
Class, School, District, Community

Collecting & Contextualizing & Extending

Class Profiles	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
Classroom	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
School & District	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
Hme/School	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
Site Orientation	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending
Community Map	Questions about Contextualizing	Questions about Extending

Choice Points for Directors